FOCUS ON CORRUPTION

Story 2

The mother was broke and so was I. We had been married for only two years when I couldn’t hold back any longer. I told her I needed money. She said she would help me, but she couldn’t. She told me to ask my mother, but she didn’t have any money. She said she was going to her brother’s house to ask for money. I waited for her but she never came back.

Story 3

When people around here get the EPF money from the employer, if the money is not used, they are forced to take some loans from the EPF. The next day, they are forced to give some money to someone else. In my opinion, the EPF should be used for its intended purpose only.

Innocent estate workers victims of EPF racket

In the wake of the recent EPF scam, many estate workers have been left destitute. According to reports, thousands of workers have been conned out of their hard-earned savings by unscrupulous employers who have used the EPF system to steal their money.

Programmes help increase productivity

As part of its efforts to boost productivity, TSL (Transparency International Sri Lanka) organized a workshop on "Innovative Business Solutions and Transparency" at the premises of the National Arts Council. The event was attended by representatives from various sectors, including construction, agriculture, and tourism.

Immigration officials at TSL workshop

Immigration officials of Sri Lanka’s National Immigration Services (NIS) recently visited TSL to discuss the challenges faced by their organization and the need for improvements in the current system.

Positive response from participants

Participants at the workshop on "Innovative Business Solutions and Transparency" were highly appreciative of the discussions and the initiatives proposed by the speakers.

On 9 December...

TSL will commemorate UN Anti-Corruption Day with a year-long campaign. The event will feature an awareness campaign, a symposium, and a quiz competition.

India’s Right to Information Act well accepted

India’s Right to Information Act (RTI) has been widely accepted and implemented across the country. The law provides citizens with the right to seek information from government bodies and public authorities.

Worldwide condemnation of grenade attack on TSL Executive Director

Local and international organizations have condemned the grenade attack on TSL Executive Director, calling for a broader and more comprehensive response to such acts of violence.

On page 2...

The International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) has launched a campaign to promote good governance and integrity in the construction industry.

An assault on courage and integrity

The recent grenade attack on TSL Executive Director has raised concerns about the safety of journalists and activists who speak out against corruption. It is crucial that those who work to promote transparency and accountability are protected and supported.

Sri Lanka is 92nd in the Corruption Index

Sri Lanka has been ranked 92nd in the Corruption Index, according to Transparency International’s Corruption Perceptions Index 2020. The report highlights the need for continued efforts to combat corruption and promote integrity in the country.

On page 4...

The International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) has launched a campaign to promote good governance and integrity in the construction industry.

On page 5...

The International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) has launched a campaign to promote good governance and integrity in the construction industry.